Dear Parents,

We are excited to announce that Southern ProMusica are putting on their fantastic schools concert again at Chichester Festival Theatre on 17th January 2017 at 10.45am but tickets sell out fast!

This is an amazing event & The March School is planning to extend the invite to all children who currently take music lessons but would need to know numbers and also receive payment by the end of this term. That is how popular it is! The concert lasts about one hour and details can be found on the following website:

<http://www.southernpromusica.org/concerts.htm>

The cost is £4 per child. Please bring your money to the school office (do not use on-line payment system please as Hanna Campkin, a school parent, will be buying the tickets). You will be provided with an email receipt so please also check your email address is correct with the office.

We anticipate that parents will be required to take and collect their children from the event rather than a coach being hired.

Thank you and hope your musical child would like to join in the fun!

Tanya Hatton & Hanna Campkin, Parents at The March.
